

signs of the island being brought back to life anyway, I had

Great basket... and fell in love with it. ... a holiday be gh ld y's r' ag m k- he if s s, ty ars ies ll, erf

Great Basket ... ty and fell in love with it. ... village as a holiday scape, the ses crow

Basket
rs were hey ret
ors, roo ful in the ne village vers had winds h
s. In the
from Ala
Great Basket
with an ambition
ranch, he called on exiled very cheaply. After all, wh derelict house on an inacc bottle of brandy, or so the r than life and the people wes some were sorry when his pl
The next time anyone thou Basket was in the mid-eighties Wall Street Journal offered the dollars. That was the start of attle between a company based aylor Collings's share of the lar led at that time by Charles F eain - which wanted to establi still before the Supreme Cou of the season, and the future of the island being brought

...storey b...
...slate roof...
...was bought...
...holiday and...
...rebuild...
...islanders...
...who could exp...
...inaccessible island? Co...
...rest of Dingle went. Co...
...ans came to nothing...
...t about who owned the...
...en an advertisement in...
...for sale for a million...
...d complicated legal...
...h had acquired legal...
...mer government...
...the issue...
...t first...
...ere

be ugh
orld
ty's
r'.
ag
orn
khe if s es,
ity
ars
es
ll,
n
k
of ould
ame, erf

infinite seascape, the village se-bic, its houses crowded close of the Great Basket that faced The islanders were pragmati evacuation they returned in homes of doors, roof beams might be useful in their new

At the top of the village, way where Peig Sayers had lived in 1910, but the winds had pu out the windows. In the sever eccentric pilot from Alabar visited the Great Basket on Seized with an ambition to
 ranch, he called on exiled
 very cheaply. After all, wh derelict house on an inacce
 bottle of brandy, or so the r than life and the people we some were sorry when his p

The next time anyone the Basket was in the mid-eigh Wall Street Journal offered dollars. That was the start battle between a company b Taylor Collings's share of t
 - led at that time by Cha Icíleain - which wanted to was still before the Supren boat of the season, and th signs of the island being b

... and fell in love with it.
... as a holiday

se
trong and blown by a rich an Collings, who fell in love with it.
the village as a holiday d bought their plots, big money for a man sold for eggs was larger character, so
Great
the

